Cinco de Mayo Celebrations

Cinco de Mayo—or the fifth of May—commemorates the Mexican army's 1862 victory over France at the Battle of Puebla during the Franco-Mexican War (1861-1867). A relatively minor holiday in Mexico, in the United States Cinco de Mayo has evolved into a celebration of Mexican culture and heritage. Dallas is known for its large number of celebrations – many right here in our neighborhood. One of the more well-known parties is Cinco de Mattito's located at 3011 Routh Street starting at 2 pm. Head to Mattito's for mariachis, mechanical bull rides and more. Try you hand at the Third Annual Bob Armstrong Queso Eating Contest; if you want to sign up to eat as much cheese, taco meat, guacamole and sour cream as you can in five minutes.

Annual Katy Trail 5K

Join us for the No. 14 Katy 5K Run-Walk-Skate on Thursday, May 10th at 7:00p.m. at Reverchon Park, benefitting the Friends of Katy Trail. Afterwards, treat yourself to the Katy Picnic, an outdoor party featuring drinks and food from more the 50 local restaurants including Chuy's, Sambuca, Eatzi's, Ques-d-ya's and Sangria Tapas y Bar. Tickets are $40 and registration ends on May 9th at www.lukeslocker.com. Come out for a fun evening run and some yummy food!

AMLI Rocks Out at Wildflower!

Wildflower! Is an award-winning multi-day eclectic arts and music festival that draws over 70,000. The festival is held at Richardson's Galatyn Park urban center off Central Expressway and Galatyn Parkway. Join AMLI in celebrating the festival's 20th anniversary Friday, May 18th – Sunday, May 20th. Help AMLI kick off the festival during the Friday Night Street Party on the Plaza with Le Freak. AMLI's booth will be located between AMLI Galatyn Station and the Eisemann Center with a photo booth and several give-aways. There will be over 70 musical acts during the festival including Dashboard Confessional, Mark Chesnut, Nelly, The Commodores, Lou Gramm and Neil McCoy. For a full festival schedule including music lineup, visit www.wildflowerfestival.com.
